

IT IS TIME TO Preserve Peaches
 "Plums"
 "Crabapples"
 "Wild Grapes"
 "Onions"
 "Peaches"
 "Cauliflower"
 "Cukes"
 "Tomatoes"
 "Peppers—Red, Green"

We have the full line of Preserve and Pickle Stock, also the Spice, Sugar, Jar, Etc. Put up the best. It keeps, the poor spoils.

SOMERS BROS.
 sept13d

NOTICE
 Because of the Shannon Building fire I have been obliged to change my office to No. 21 Broadway, Wauregan House, where I shall be pleased to receive my former patients.
 Office hours: 9-10 a. m., 1-2 and 5-6 p. m.

DR. GEO. R. HARRIS
 may13d

Geo. Ehrets Extra Lager at the Wauregan House Cafe.
 THE PARKER-DAVENPORT CO., Proprietors.

LADIES!
 Have your Furs altered and repaired now
 Work done now is well done, and at more reasonable prices than during the rush season. Good work done under clean conditions at reasonable prices.

McPHERSON'S,
 The Furrier.
 sept13d

Do It Now
 Have that old-fashioned, unsanitary plumbing replaced by new and modern open plumbing. It will repay you in the increase of health and saving of doctor's bills. Overhauling and re-plumbing thoroughly done. Let me give you a figure for replacing all the old plumbing with the modern kind that will keep out the sewer gas. The work will be first-class and the price reasonable.

J. F. TOMPKINS,
 aug13d 67 West Main Street.

Schultz Milwaukee Beer, $1 a dozen. Famous Narragansett Select Stock, 80c a dozen. Yale and New England Brewery Co's Ale, Lager and Porter, 50c a dozen. Wines, Liquors and Cordials at special prices.
JACOB STEIN, 93 West Main St.
 Telephone 26-1.

"The Plank," 2 Franklin Street, is headquarters for the best ALES and LAGERS in Norwich.
 O'CONNELL & SHEA,
 may13d Telephone 554-4.

A BARGAIN IN LADIES' Watches $12.75
 buys a O size 15 Jewel, nickel movement, in a 20 year gold filled hunting case.
 Quality guaranteed.

JOHN & GEO. H. BLISS

MME. TAFT,
 Palmist and Clairvoyant.
 1000 Erwin House, Williamantic.

The Bulletin

Norwich, Monday, Sept. 13, 1909.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Late rains have started the roses to blooming again.
 The last of the university students will leave town this week.
 Excursion to New York. See adv. on page 7 of today's issue—adv.
 Poultry raisers complain of the frequent visits of foxes and hen hawks.

Chestnut trees have been loaded with blossoms, indicating a good crop.
 Norwich was represented at the last Sunday concert of the season, at the Golden Spur, yesterday.
 The gypsies who were in Norwich last week, are wanted in New London for looting vegetable gardens.

Those who desire to vote at the town election must have their names on the list before next Thursday afternoon.
 Clusters have been benefited a little by last week's rain, but wells were too dry to show any effects of the rain fall, yet.

The field day of the Connecticut society, Sons of the American Revolution, will be held Thursday, September 16, at Morris Cove, New Haven.

Several Norwich friends attended the funeral of Miss Mary Eddy Benjamen at Groton on Saturday afternoon. Burial was in Cedar Grove cemetery, New London.

Rural free delivery is to have its 13th birthday anniversary in October. In recognition of this fact the post-office department may give a real birthday celebration.

Katherine V. Lambert, manufacturer of hair goods, at Mabrey's, Broadway.—adv.

Wednesday evening at sunset the Hebrew holiday season will begin. Thursday will be Rosh-a-Shonah, or New Year's day, and will be observed with solemn religious service.

At the annual fall meeting of the Connecticut Society of the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, which will be held Thursday at the home of the governor of the society, Arthur J. Birdseye of Farmington, a sheep roast is to be served.

Horace Johnson, who predicted a disturbance between the 13th and 14th, announces: "About the 23d, there will be a local disturbance of little account. From the 23th to the 26th, there will be a southeast disturbance likely to be furious for awhile, not of long duration."

Friday's Waterbury Democrat said: John M. Brewer, deputy collector of internal revenue office No. 4, will leave tomorrow on his annual vacation. He will be gone until September 27. The local business in the meantime will be transacted by the Hartford office, of which Robert O. Eaton is the collector.

The papers commented upon the fact that Saturday was the 52d birthday of Dr. Thomas J. Shahan, rector of the Catholic university of America, and one of the most erudite members of the Catholic church in America, who was born in Manchester, N. H., September 11, 1857.

Sunday, the feast of the Holy Name of Mary. Rev. P. L. FitzPatrick preached at the high mass in St. Patrick's church on the immaculate Mother of the Saviour, "our tainted nature's solitary boast," the exemplar of virtues, so necessary to salvation. The offertory was an "Ave, Maria," by Miss Greeley.

Excursion to New York. See adv. on page 7 of today's issue—adv.

The Hudson-Fulton commemorative two-cent stamp will not be put on sale until the morning of September 25. The bureau of engraving and printing is busy turning out the new stamps and they will be forwarded to postmasters about September 20. They will be sold only on request, and none is to be on sale in advance of the date of the celebration.

All ex-prisoners of war and G. A. R. men have been invited to Hartford September 17, when a replica of the statue erected at the Arlington station by the state of Connecticut, in memory of the Connecticut soldiers, who suffered in southern military prisons during the civil war, which was presented to the state by the late Col. F. W. Cheney, will be dedicated on the capital grounds.

SHRINERS' SHEEP BAKE.
 Theater Party, With Ladies, Will Follow in the Evening.

The announcement for the sheep bake and athletic sports of Sphinx temple of the Mystic Shrine, at Lake Compounce, Friday, Sept. 24, has been received here by nobles of the temple. The special train will leave Union station, Hartford, at 11 o'clock. Dinner will be served at the lake at 1 o'clock. After the bake there will be athletic sports, consisting of baseball, boat races and other events. There will be a concert by the Sphinx Temple band. The return to Hartford will be at 4.30. In the evening the nobles will be accompanied by their ladies to the theater party.

On the reception committee from this city, James C. Fitzpatrick and Charles H. Preston, as is John P. Gorman of Jewett City.

Application Denied.
 Justice Gierach in the supreme court at New York Saturday declined to appoint a committee on the estate of Frederick A. S. Perry, a life convict in the Connecticut state penitentiary at Wethersfield, Conn., where he was sent for murder in the second degree in 1885. He is said to be insane.

Dr. Dwight R. Henton, Perry's grandnephew, applied for the committee, to settle some affairs of the Perry estate. The application was denied on technical grounds.

Norwich Nurses Get Certificates.
 The state board of examination and registration of nurses has issued certificates to the following nurses of the William W. Backus Hospital Training school at Norwich: Miss Ethel Ryan, Miss Katherine McSweeney, Miss Sophie Thompson, Miss Agnes McKenna, Miss Mary Berken, Miss Alice Edwards, Miss Gertrude Taylor, Miss Katherine Dowd, Miss Marion Stevens and Miss Margaret Liles.

Hebron.—The building to be erected for the town records is to be of brick and the kind of roof left in the hands of the committee.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Chesbro of Norwich spent Saturday in Williamantic.

Mrs. Joseph Hall and son, Wilbert Hall, of Grove place, were recent visitors in Colchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris and family have gone to Springfield for a brief visit with friends.

James T. Ring has returned after a vacation trip of a week to New York, Hartford and Waterbury.

Raymond P. Lamb and Miss Alice Whitehouse returned to Norwich Friday from a trip to Boston.

Policeman Maloney resumed his duties on Sunday, after an absence of some time with appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawton of Garden City, L. I. are visiting their daughter, Mrs. William A. Somers of Perkins place.

Prof. J. J. Kennedy attends today in Boston the first district convention of the dancing masters of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Peck and family and Mr. and Mrs. James L. Crawford and children have returned from Gales Ferry.

Charles W. Conrade returned Sunday night to New York after attending the funeral of his cousin, Miss Catherine Crowley.

Mrs. Henry Langworthy and children have returned to Nonak after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. N. Eugene Smith in this city.

Mrs. H. M. Smith and daughter, Mrs. George Wardell of Jersey City, are visiting Mrs. Smith's brother, A. A. Sparks of Colt street.

F. L. Arnold and family, who have been spending the summer at Crescent beach, have returned to their home on Cliff street.

Miss Jane Lucas of Trading Cove has returned home from a two weeks' visit with a sister, Mrs. James E. DeWolf of West Thames street.

The Misses Reynolds, who have been visiting their sister, Mrs. J. A. Heffernan of 24 Kensington avenue, Meriden, returned home Friday.

Irving Hinchley of Worcester, Mass., a student at Clark college, is spending a few days at the home of Mrs. L. E. Greene, 24 Central avenue.

Mrs. John Royston and daughter, Miss Annie Royston, have returned from a six weeks' trip through Vermont, New Hampshire and Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pitcher and daughter, the Misses Eva, Lottie and Miriam, and son, Elmer, have returned, having closed their cottage at Gales Ferry for the season.

State Fish and Game Association.
 The annual meeting of the Connecticut Fish and Game Protective association was held Friday at Hartford, officers being elected as follows: President, Theodore Sturges of Fairfield; vice presidents, New London county, Senoah P. B. Beaudette of New London; Tolland county, R. M. Fisk of Stafford Springs; Windham county, John P. Grosvenor of Pomfret Center; secretary and treasurer, H. P. Carter of New Britain; executive committee, New London county, G. B. Prest of New London, W. A. Coster of Uxbridge; Tolland county, L. P. Russell of Rockville, P. M. Talcott of Rockville, E. White of Rockville; Windham county, Russell Perkins of Pomfret Center; A. R. Lapsley of Pomfret Center; E. E. Bugbee of Williamantic.

Free Employment Bureau.
 The August operations of the free public employment bureau of the state were as follows:
 Applications for employment, males 594, females 451; total 1,045; applications for help, males 419, females 581, total 1,000; situations secured, males 344, females 463, total 807.

In Norwich there were: Applications for employment, males 47, females 25, total 72; applications for help, males 37, females 50, total 87; situations secured, males 10, females 19, total 29.

Sight Seer Season Closed.
 The last regular trips of the Sight Seer from the season between Norwich and Crescent beach were made on Sunday and Manager Smith will now get the boat ready for the winter quarters. The season has been an excellent one, and he is well pleased with the result. The boat will be tied up this winter at Shaw's cove, New London.

Closed Cars Sent to New London.
 The Connecticut company's closed cars of the New London line are being sent to New London from this city, having been put into condition for winter service. All the cars have been repaired and the upholstery renovated.

Break at Abington.
 Chief Maloney was informed on Sunday of a break at the Abington station and was asked to look after any suspects in this vicinity. Little or nothing was secured from the station as far as could be learned.

AT BROADWAY THEATER.
 The World and a Woman.

A problem play of American life. The World and a Woman was presented at the Broadway theater on Saturday evening by a company of the players in a manner which thoroughly satisfied the audience, the principals being given much applause for their parts. Marion Fowler as the wife was well cast, her work winning high favor and was recognized by generous applause, several curtain calls being given her. The husband, Willie L. Roberts played the role of the unsuspecting and trusting head of the house while Alice Irvington carried her role in a clever manner and Irvington-Lester was excellent as the detective. Charles A. Kyle completed the company and made good in his part.

Building Notes.
 Local contractors are figuring plans for alterations to a house on Warren street for John Fowler.

J. P. Barstow & Co. will do the plumbing and a Boston company the heating in the new building for the Norwich Free Academy. The lighting will be done by Preston Bros. part of which is under way.

Changes to a house on High street for Meyer Blumenthal. An addition, 16x20, three stories high, will be built on, and interior improvements made.

Taken to Insane Hospital.
 On Sunday Constable Hickey of Montville came here and took William Brady, aged 25, to the Norwich state hospital. He was taken into custody in Montville, where he had been creating a disturbance in his boarding house. It was believed he was insane and an examination by doctors sustained the belief.

Funeral.
 Miss Catherine Crowley.

The funeral of Miss Catherine Crowley, which was largely attended, both by local and out of town relatives and friends, was held Sunday afternoon at 1.30 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Crowley, No. 135 Spring street, and at 2 o'clock services were conducted at St. Patrick's church by Rev. J. J. Treanor. The bearers were Daniel J. Donegan, William O'Brien, Daniel Connors, William Devine, John Barry, and William Farrell. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. Undertaker Hourigan was in charge.

Relatives were present from Hartford, Providence, New York, Williamantic and Boston. Among the large number of floral tributes were the following: Pillows, white and blue, from the club members; pillow, Kittle Jeremiah Crowley and family; cross, girls in silk mill, where the deceased was employed; bouquet of roses, St. Anne's T. A. society; standing wreaths, Timothy Donegan and son; standing wreath, Arthur H. Brewer; wreaths, death in glory, from Alice Crowley and Aunt and Fannie Wright; pillow, Cousin, Charles W. Conrade; casket, Mrs. C. R. Woodman; casket, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bowman; bouquets of asters, Miss Mary E. Kane, George Nolan, Mary E. O'Connor, Frank McLean, Mamie and Kate O'Connor, Julia Barry, cross, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McCarthy; Gates Ajar, Auntie, from Baby Haggerty.

Alonso F. Pendleton.
 The funeral of Alonso F. Pendleton was held from his late home in West Thames street on Saturday afternoon, there being many in attendance. The services were conducted by Rev. C. H. Bickford, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. There was a number of floral forms. Relatives and friends acted as bearers and burial was in Yantic cemetery, where a committal service was read. Henry Allen & Son had charge of the arrangements.

Mr. Pendleton died at 11 o'clock Thursday morning, having been sick for the past four weeks, and during that time had been a great sufferer. He was 62 years of age and was survived by his wife, a brother, and two sisters.

TENNIS NEARLY FINISHED.
 Only Two Matches Left to Decide Championship.

One game remains to be played off in the semi-final round in the tennis tourney at the courts at the roque club before the finals are reached, this being the contest between H. B. Cary and Allyn L. Brown. This will probably be played late this afternoon and the winner will play John L. Mitchell in the finals. Mitchell took his match in the semi-finals from Dan Brown Saturday, 6-1, 4-6 and 6-2. Cary reached the semi-finals by defeating the default of their match which was started one day and cut short by darkness before it was finished.

The consolation games were decided on Saturday, W. T. Olcott winning out by defeating Carl Browning three straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, and 6-1, after Browning had put out H. M. George, 6-4 and 6-2. Good galleries were present at the matches and the sport has had a revival of interest here through the successful arrangements which carried out this tourney.

RUDD THE WINNER.
 Gets First Place in Local Roque Tourney by Breaking Tie.

Tracy Rudd, a first division player in the national roque tournaments, won the local roque championship last week in the tourney conducted here at the roque club. He was the only player who was compelled to play off a tie with Captain H. Wahby of Washington, D. C., to win the title. The match was won by Rudd, who he agreed to play it off, best two out of three. Rudd took two straight and the title.

Tracy was yet to be decided as W. Sullivan and C. Browning have both lost the same number of games. But Sullivan has about completed his tourney while Browning has several yet to play. They will get at these as promptly as possible this week.

COMFORT IN Truss Fitting

If a truss is properly fitted it should not cause discomfort. If you wear a truss which torments you, that is pretty sure proof that it does not fit you properly.

In our Truss Department we carry a splendid line of leather covered, Hard Rubber, Elastic and Wire Trusses of the latest and most practical designs, also Abdominal Supporters and Elastic Goods.

We do our fitting with the utmost care, insuring you a comfortable and a positively safe fit. Our work in this department has been classed as perfect truss fitting by many excellent judges in this vicinity. We guarantee to please you well or else we will refund your money.

SMITH
 The Drug Man,
 Franklin Square, Norwich, Ct.
 sept13d

QUICK CAPTURE OF BURGLAR.

Julius Wuttkey Found James McKenna at Work on Safe in Saloon Had Entered by Window and Had the Safe Door Open—Another Job Laid to Him.

The third burglar to be caught in the act here this summer was landed on Sunday afternoon shortly before six o'clock when James McKenna of River Point, R. I., aged 32, was found in Wuttkey's saloon and was soon behind the bars in police headquarters. McKenna was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.

Afternoon about 4.45 o'clock Julius Wuttkey, who has his saloon at No. 35 Franklin street and as he entered the place he heard a noise which he thought was made by a burglar. He could not see the animal, however, but upon investigating discovered that his place had been entered and found a Mrs. Smith, who was sitting at the back and spread the alarm, leading him until Policeman Henderson responded when the fellow was taken to police station.

Another break on Sunday which is attributed to McKenna was found by Central Agent M. J. Kelly of the Bureau of Labor Union at his office in the Lucas building. Entrance had been gained there and the knob of the safe had been knocked off but the safe had been found empty. McKenna had been working on the safe for some time and it was believed that he was in the building when the fellow had been caught in Wuttkey's saloon.

On him besides papers. He is a medium sized man with gray hair and mustache and dressed like a traveler. He had a knife and a saw on his person and was going to the sawmill through rear window and the door of the safe was open although none of the contents had been disturbed. Inasmuch as the safe door was not locked, the safe was not broken into. This break was sent out men at once but Policeman Henderson had by that time gotten the fellow on the road to headquarters.

McKenna was taken to the police station and was held in the cell. He was charged with burglary. The other breaks were Wuttkey's saloon and Powers' fish market.